

Spain / Mairena /
Cooking with Sam Clark at Casa Las Chimeneas

Sample schedule

- Day 1 Arrive at Malaga airport, transfer to Mairena, tapas stop en route, welcome drink and introductions, walk through the village, dinner at home
- Day 2 Visit to the local market town of Ugijar trip to buy local produce, visit to the local award winning vineyard, lunch, afternoon cooking class with Sam Clark, dinner
- Day 3 Class with Sam Clark, lunch, an afternoon of foraging for herbs with Juan, el furtive (the poacher), visit to the olive mill and olive oil tasting, dinner
- Day 4 Class with Sam Clark, lunch, demonstration of traditional local cheese making, afternoon visit to organic farm to collect figs, walnuts, almonds and wild grapes, dinner
- Day 5 departure

An optional extra eight day gastronomy / activity in Mairena

As above but to include 3 extra days in Mairena and one day in Granada, including visit to the Alhambra the world famous Moorish palace and gardens of the Alhambra with its magnificent back drop of the Sierra Nevada and views to the old gypsy quarters of Granada city below.", guided tour of the city, tapas lunch, dinner and night in 4* hotel

Extra three days in Mairena includes a selection of the following possible activities:

- Visit to wine growing area of Laujar and walk along ancient waterway through caves
- A morning with Sole, Casa Las Chimeneas chef and demonstration of traditional Mairena recipes
- Off road trip in 4x4, and guided walk to the peaks above.
- Half day mountain bike adventure
- Half day horse riding (40 euro supplement)
- Half day walk across the olive terraces from Yegen
- Evening stroll to see ancient Moorish settlement, and to include a private visit to see the murals in the temple at Jubar, part mosque, part synagogue, part Catholic church.

In addition for those who like walking we have a wide range of walk notes and maps following the ancient pathway GR7 along the almond and olive groves. For the more sedentary Casa Las Chimeneas has a lovely secluded terrace with spectacular views and small dip pool as well as a modest library.